New Year's Greeting

Happy New Year, everyone! At the beginning of this New Year, I would like to extend my best regards to you all.

Last year again, following the year before, Japan, as well as many other countries in the world, was struck with multiple natural disasters. I would like to convey my deepest condolences to those who lost their lives through those disasters and express my sympathy to everyone affected. In addition, we must never forget that armed conflicts and terror attacks as well as severe starvation is making it difficult to live, and lives are being lost every day.

Last September I had an opportunity to make an official visit to the temples of the Buddhist Churches of America as Monshu for the first time. This allowed me to complete the first round of visitations to all of the overseas districts which include Canada, Hawaii, South America, and the US mainland.

Although every temple and district has its own history and background, many of the overseas Jodo Shinshu temples were established and have been cherished by the Japanese immigrants and their descendants. Reflecting on how sincerely our predecessors entrusted themselves to the Buddha Dharma and how importantly they thought of their temples while facing many difficulties such as World War II, I cannot help but feel grateful and even awe for their tremendous efforts as well as many other wondrous circumstances that have allowed the Jodo Shinshu teaching to be handed down to us today.

However, a considerable amount of time has passed since the Japanese emigrated overseas, and the lifestyle of their descendants, as well as the world situation have changed greatly. In accordance with these changes, quite a few people who are not of ethnically Japanese origin have also come to appreciate the teaching clarified by Shinran Shonin, and attend our overseas temples.

What caused this is nothing but the universality of the Jodo Shinshu teaching that transcends time and space. In other words, Amida Buddha's compassion equally reaches and nondiscriminatively embraces everyone in the midst of all sorts of pain and agony.

In this year, let us continue to listen to the Dharma, considering it is directed to each one of us, and keep moving forward to share it with many other people as possible.

年頭の辞

新しい年のはじめにあたり、ご挨拶申し上げます。

昨年も日本をはじめ世界各地で多くの自然災害が起きました。災害によってお亡くなりになられた方に謹んで哀悼の意を表しますとともに、被災された方に心よりお見舞い申し上げます。また、これら以外にも紛争やテロ・飢餓などによって、日々多くの方が犠牲となり、困難な生活を送っておられることも忘れてはいけません。

さて、昨年9月に、門主として初めて北米開教区を訪問させていただきましたが、これによって、カナダ・ハワイ・南米・北米の全開教区を門主としてお参りさせていただいたこととなります。各開教区、また各お寺によって、その歴史や現在の状況は異なりますが、多くのお寺が日本から移住された日本人の方とその子孫によって建立され、護持されてきました。第二次世界大戦をはじめとする様々な困難な状況にあっても、み教えを依りどころとして、お寺を大切に護ってこられた先人の方々に思いを致すとき、今日の私たちにまで浄土真宗のみ教えが受け継がれてきたことの尊く、また不思議なご縁をととても有り難く思います。

一方で日本人の方が最初に海外へ移住されてから相当の年数がたち、日系人の方々の生活も大きく変化し、また、時代状況も大きく変わりました。そのような中で、親鸞聖人が説かれた浄土真宗のみ教えは、日本人や日系人だけではなく、世界中の多くの方に伝わり、各開教区においても、様々な方がお寺へ来られるようになってきました。それは、浄土真宗のみ教えが、時代や場所を越えた普遍的な教えであるからです。すなわち、様々な悩みや苦しみを抱えるすべての人々を包み込み、摂め取ってくださる阿弥陀さまのおはたらきが普遍的であるということです。

本年も自分のこととしてみ教えを聞くとともに、多くの方にみ教えが伝わるよう努めて参りましょう。

2020 New Year's Greeting from Office of the Bishop

On behalf of the Jodo Shinshu Buddhist Temples of Canada, I wish to thank all of you for your support and understanding throughout the year 2019.

While quietly reflecting on 2019, how quickly a year passes. At such times, I wonder what causes us to lose sight of what is truly of value. "What is the big picture of life that Buddhism tries to encourage us to keep in mind, as we live?" When we lose sight of the big picture, without thinking, we just feel we know what we value, and we know what is right. But the essential point of Buddhism is very simple: What we must value most in life... is life itself. We must value this opportunity to live and appreciate this experience that we share together.

My studies for academic advancement through Nishi Hongwanji was successfully completed in June, 2019. Earlier in the month of April, I started a programme to learn Japanese tea ceremony, "Sado" or "Chado". While I was learning how to make and serve green tea, I also learned about the philosophy of tea ceremony. There is a Buddhist saying that is closely associated with the Tea Master, Sen No Rikyu (1522-1591). The phrase is, "Ichigo-Ichie." Literally, it means, "One Moment-One Meeting." Within the tea ceremony, it implies that our coming together in this moment happens but once in our lifetime; let us appreciate this time together.

Ultimately, in the big picture of things, it is certainly not about winning or losing a hockey game. It is not about getting what we want or having our way. Ultimately and most essentially, it is about valuing life and this time we have together. When our Dharma eyes are open, we cannot help but see that we must not take for granted this very moment of life we are living. As I have often asked, "How many months of Decembers will be ours to enjoy?" However many, that number is limited. Realizing this, let us try to live together and work together harmoniously in the spirit of "Ichigo-Ichie." Let us live knowing that each day is new and fresh and at the same time, each moment may be our last. With our Dharma eyes open, let us try to enjoy this winter holiday season, letting go of our complaints, our anger, and resentments and embrace each moment and each meeting with others, knowing that they will never come again. In Jodo Shinshu, we would call a life of Ichigo-Ichie, "A life of Nembutsu."

Thank you for your kindness and support throughout the last year. We look forward to another wonderful year together. I would like to wish everyone a very happy and healthy Holiday Season!

Greetings for the New Year

The year 2019 has come to an end and the New Year has begun to unfold. Let us pause to reflect over the past year, and welcome the New Year 2020.

At this time, I would like to express my sincere best wishes to everyone for a Happy New Year 2020. I wish all of you a meaningful and constructive life for the coming year. We begin the New Year with optimism, and positive expectations, but we never know what the year may bring us. Over the past year many things happened in the life of each family. When we reflect on life, we recognize just how fragile and transient it can be. Throughout this, Amida Buddha's wisdom and compassion will always be there for us. I hope that the coming year will be a meaningful and fulfilling year for all of you and your families in the light of Amida Buddha.

Over the past year, we had some memorable experiences, such as the three major Buddhist Services: Ho-on-ko, Hanamatsuri, and Obon Services within the Buddhist community. At the end of the Summer, some of us attended the World Women's Buddhist Convention, held in San Francisco. We also had the B.C. Federation Convention, in Kamloops B.C. hosted by the Kamloops Buddhist Temple. These and other Temple activities gave us many opportunities to meet Dharma friends. In between, we enjoyed several social events and fund-raising activities. All of these contribute to our sense of community and connection with others.

Within our B.C. Interior Buddhist Communities, over this past year we lost several close Dharma friends. With feelings of sadness and grief in our hearts, we turn to our faith and take refuge in our spirituality to have a sense of comfort and the strength and courage to carry on. The memories of our loved ones and their contributions to us and our lives will remain within our hearts forever.

This past year was different from other years in many ways. Throughout the world, environmental issues have reached a worrisome level. These concerns have been expressed by many aspects of our society in the Political world, the scientific world, the industrial and economical community. People around the world have been concerned by the increasing and imminent danger for the integrity of our earth and humanity.

A young 16-year-old Swedish girl, Greta Thunberg, spoke at the United Nations Climate Action Summit with the shocking message to world leaders. She said to the people of the world "Entire ecosystems are collapsing. We are in the beginning of a mass extinction, and all you can talk about is money and fairy tales of eternal economical growth, how dare you..." Her leadership and sincerity were indeed convincing to the world. It was a shocking and moving message about climate change and the damage that has been done to the nature of our planet.

When we look back over past years, we cannot fail to recognize that we have continued to pollute our world and that our planet earth is in danger. This year will be a year to remember our growing concerns about the future of our planet and the importance of becoming aware of the chaos that is occurring within nature. There is an urgent need for us to become actively involved in efforts to cope with the multiplicity of changes that have occurred within our planet.

This coming year, we will face numerous challenges. In this complicated world of today, it is important for us to move beyond our own self-centred lives. We need to recognize the urgency of issues relating to climate change. In today's news, it was reported that by the year 2100 that 1.9 billion people would experience a shortage of water.

As we begin the New Year, may it bring you opportunities to live a meaningful existence. Let us all recognize the interconnectedness of all beings. Let us worship together and deepen our spirituality. As we recite Amida's name, Namo Amida Butsu, may we gain the strength to cope with the challenges that the year ahead will have in store for us.

Seasons Greetings and Happy New Year to everyone.

In Gassho,
Rev. Yasuhiro Miyakawa.

The Kamloops Buddhist Temple would like to extend our deep gratitude to the Living Dharma Centre.

In September, Kamloops hosted the 64th British Columbia Jodo Shinshu Buddhist Temples Federation convention and AGM.

It was the first time in many years Kamloops was able to host the convention, and we were thrilled to have Dr. Kenneth Tanaka, author of "Ocean" and many other books on Shin Buddhism, serve as our guest speaker.

We knew that our microphone system was inadequate for the convention (let alone our regular services) and even though we are on a very tight budget, sought to purchase a wireless lapel mic.

Kent MacCarl happened to visit our Temple around this time and mentioned to a couple board members that LDC might be able to help us.

We got in touch with Amy Wakisaka who guided us through the procedure. Lance Yamada found a wireless mic that would serve our purposes perfectly, and with the full contribution from the LDC, we were able to purchase the microphone system!

The new system worked perfectly for our convention! Our regular services are now much more fulfilling for our members, many of whom having hearing impairments, but are now able to hear Miyakawa Sensei loud and clear!

So from the bottom of our hearts, Thank you LDC!!!

Congratulations to Rick & Maureen Nakashimada on the arrival of a new granddaughter, Isobel Sumiko, born October 24, 2019. Proud parents are Kelsey and Richard.

Fall Bazaar and Fall Chow Mein Sale

"Thank you" all for helping to make the fall bazaar and the chow mein sale another success.

The bazaar was held on October 19th and remains a huge production. There are so many different areas to this event. Lots and lots of work goes into the chow mein, karinto, manju, sushi, gyoza, sandwiches/tea, set up and clean up of the hondo. Work begins many weeks before the bazaar date, which means lots of work parties. We appreciate all the home baking that is donated, prizes for the raffle and the produce from your garden.

The chow mein sale was on November 30th. There were 500 tickets printed and sold this year. This is 2500 servings that we are committed to.

The chow mein process starts with making the dough-day 1, then deep frying – day 2, then bagging -day 3. Chickens are cooked to make broth used in the recipe – day 4. Eggs are cooked and sliced for topping (chicken too!) – day 5. Then 250lbs each of celery, onions and bean sprouts are cut, bagged, weighed and counted for the next day – day 6. Cooking and packaging from 6am to 6:30pm - day 7. Whow. It takes a week or more to make our chow mein! "Otsukare sama deshita".

We appreciate all the time and effort that members and non-members give to help. We appreciate you selling tickets, buying tickets and advertising for us. The temple thanks you!

Kamloops Buddhist Temple hosts BCJSBTF Convention & AGM

The 64th Annual British Columbia Jodo Shinshu Buddhist Temples Federation Convention and AGM was held in Kamloops, BC, September 27 – 29, 2019. It had been a number of years since the Kamloops Buddhist Temple had hosted a convention. But with encouragement from Mari Cameron (Vernon Temple) and Kuni Ikuta (Steveston Temple) we took the challenge! Kay Hori, Kaye Kaminishi and Terry Sakaki were all enthused and on board for our temple to host.

In attendance were members from Vancouver, Steveston, Fraser Valley, Kelowna, Vernon and Kamloops Temples. There were a number of people who came just for the day to hear Dr Tanaka's lectures.

Our guest speaker was Dr Kenneth Tanaka, from Japan. Dr Tanaka is the author of the well known book - Ocean. Approximately, 70 people took in Dr Tanaka's lecture on Saturday.

Also, we had Dharma talks in Japanese given by Rev. Tatsuya Aoki Socho and Rev. Grant Ikuta Sensei. Tanaka Sensei also spoke in Japanese. The seniors appreciated having the 3 consecutive Japanese sessions!

The Convention & AGM was held at the temple, like the 'good old days' and was appreciated by all who attended. A huge "thank you" is extended to Miyakawa Sensei, the committee members and all the volunteers that helped to make the weekend a reality.

In Gassho,

Daniel Heslop & Anna Kato, co-chairs.
